

Application for Membership Renewal

Registered Reflexology Therapist (RRT)

Nova Scotia Association of Reflexology Practitioners

Membership Renewal

Membership renewal fees are due by December 31st, 2016. There is a $25 late fee if you renew after this date. Membership privileges, including RRT number, will automatically expire if dues are not received by January 31st, 2017.

Please check the expiration dates on your professional liability insurance (PLI) and First Aid/CPR certificates, and forward copies of current certifications if applicable. Proof of valid PLI, First Aid/CPR certification and a Canadian Criminal Record Check is mandatory for active RRT status and to be included in the registry sent to insurance companies.

Canadian criminal record check (Canadian Police Information Centre Criminal Record Synopsis – CPIC check). CPIC checks must be requested under original and all other surnames. The CPIC check must have been conducted no more than six months before the date of registration. It may be obtained from your local or regional police station, or online at www.csiscreening.com

Questionnaire

In order for ACART to give you (the member) what you need from an association we would like you to fill out a questionnaire that will help us with our future planning. Please send it back with your renewal this December.

1. Have you attended any NSARP/ACART events in the past two years?
If not could you please share why? (e.g cost, timing, location, type of event)

2. What would you like to see ACART provide for your membership fee?

3. Do you have any suggestions for future conferences/workshops/locations?
